

Edgar Cayce was one of the most famous psychics of the 20th century. Charles Thomas Cayce, his grandson, questioned the very existence of the supernatural.

But when Charles Thomas read the life reading his grandfather gave for him hours after he was born, his attitude changed. Maybe there was more to the universe than could be perceived with the senses.

Conversations with Cayce chronicles Charles Thomas's fascinating journey from skeptic to seeker to president of the Association for Research and Enlightenment.
